If admitted to the University of Kansas as a non-degree seeking student, you're not eligible to receive federal aid unless you meet one of the exceptions and you enroll at least half time (6 hours in fall/spring and 3 hours in summer.) No grant aid is available.

1. You wish to enroll in coursework required for acceptance into a bachelor's degree program. Eligibility is limited to one, consecutive 12-month period.
 - Dependent students: up to $2,625 Federal Direct Loan and opportunity to apply for Federal Direct parent PLUS loan, for which a credit check is required
 - Independent students: up to $8,625 Federal Direct Loan
2. You already received a bachelor's degree and wish to enroll in coursework required for admission into a graduate program. Taking courses to raise your GPA for admission or to investigate interest in an academic area does not qualify. Eligibility is limited to one, consecutive 12-month period.
 - Dependent students: up to $5,500 Federal Direct Loan and opportunity to apply for Federal Direct parent PLUS loan, for which a credit check is required
 - Independent students: up to $12,500 Federal Direct Loan
3. You already received a bachelor's degree and wish to enroll in coursework required to earn a professional certification (or re-certification) from the State of Kansas, as a teacher in an elementary or secondary school in Kansas. Optional courses not required for certification do not qualify. However, coursework needed to receive an additional teaching credential to teach in a different subject area is allowable. Coursework for educational leadership positions is not acceptable. Confirm with the School of Education that the state requires the courses for a teaching credential.
 - Dependent students: up to $5,500 Federal Direct Loan and opportunity to apply for Federal Direct parent PLUS loan, for which a credit check is required
 - Independent students: up to $12,500 Federal Direct Loan
4. You have already received a bachelor's degree and you're enrolled in or have been accepted for enrollment at least half-time in the Post-Baccalaureate in Health Sciences program at the Edwards campus. Eligibility is limited to one, consecutive 12-month period.
 - Dependent students: up to $5,500 Federal Direct Loan and opportunity to apply for Federal Direct parent PLUS loan, for which a credit check is required
 - Independent students: up to $12,500 Federal Direct Loan

You must complete the form on the backside before we will review your eligibility. You must complete Part A and submit it to the appropriate chair or academic advisor to complete Part B.

If you're working toward admission in a graduate program at KU, please have the chair of that program complete the form. If you're planning to apply to graduate school at a different institution, please have an academic advisor at KU familiar with the pre-requisites for that program complete the form. If you're working on teacher certification, please have a School of Education administrator complete the form.
